

Towngas China again honoured with “Outstanding Award of Corporate Citizen in China 2016”

(Hong Kong, 10 December 2016) Towngas China Company Limited (Towngas China) is again honoured with the “Outstanding Award of Corporate Citizen in China 2016” at the “Twelfth Chinese Excellence Corporate Citizenship Annual Conference” held in Beijing today. The event was jointly organized by Corporate Citizenship Committee of China Association of Social Work, China Central Television and Tencent Charity Foundation.

Founded in 2003 and registered under Ministry of Civil Affairs of China, the Corporate Citizenship Committee of the China Association of Social Workers is the only annual CSR conference in China that promotes Corporate Social Responsibility. The annual conference attracts the participation of the Global 500 companies, renowned international institutions including members of the United Nations Global Compact and leaders from non-governmental organisations.

Towngas China have been constantly making every effort to strike balance between environmental, social and economic factors in our corporate development strategies and daily operations. The company aims to make a contribution to the communities where it operates, and it dedicates to promoting the sustainable development of both the community and the environment. This recognition has again reinforced its dedication in upholding the company’s commitment in corporate social responsibility. The company will continue to spur the success in business and continue to contribute in building a sustainable community.
